Kelley Suttentfield (vocals); Tony Romano (guitar)

(Review by Ann Alex).

This is Kelley Suttentfield's second CD. She has performed in the USA and Europe, and her guitarist is a musician and educator with 20 years experience. On this enjoyable CD they give us 5 jazz standards, plus songs by Neil Young (Harvest Moon); KD Lang (Wash Me Clean); Carol King (One Fine Day); Buffy Sainte-Marie (Until It's Time For You To Go); and Bob Dylan's I'll Be Your Baby Tonight.

This is a very varied, pleasing selection, sung with a sweet and sometimes breathy voice, accompanied by sensitive, responsive guitar. The stated intention on this disc was to present the songs in a stripped-down and intimate format which has been done successfully, but I would have liked some tracks to be a bit punchier with a bit more swing, to provide greater variety. However generally the CD makes for good listening.

The opener is Fly Me To The Moon with a bell-like guitar and a gentle vocals, which makes a change from the usually brisk way this song is performed. Beautiful Love is livelier with a jazzy guitar solo and just the right amount of improvisation in the vocals. Wash Me Clean is almost hymn-like, which suits the words, but One Fine Day is a track which would have benefited from a livelier interpretation. On the other hand Until It's Time For You To Go is well suited to the intimate style of presentation. The disc also includes Just Say I Love Him; Try Your Wings and People Will Say We're In Love, 10 tracks in all, with lots of space for guitar solos from a jazz guitarist who knows his stuff.

Kelley Suttentfield and Tony Romano - Among The Stars is to be released on September 30. See www.kelleysuttentfield.com
